

Paul Sartori
Partner

psartori@allionpartners.com
T / +61 (8) 9216 7139
M / +61 407 066 927

allionpartners.com

Paul has considerable expertise and experience in public and private mergers and acquisitions, equity capital markets, shareholder investor arrangements and general corporate advisory.

He has advised on and managed a wide range of international and domestic corporate transactions across many different industry sectors, including deal structuring, due diligence, document preparation and contract negotiation.

Transactions

- Acting for management on buy out of Zorzi business
- Norwest Minerals IPO and ASX listing
- Acting for a private enterprise on numerous acquisitions in the early childhood care sector
- Acting for a WA university in its partnership with a private education provider to deliver offshore training programmes
- Gulf Manganese Corporation Limited on a A$15m funding package
- Azumah Resources on the earn-in investment by Ibaera Capital into its WA Gold Project in Ghana
- Energy Developments on its acquisition of a remote area power generation business from Wesfarmers
- Iron Mountain Inc. on the reorganisation of its global business structure following its acquisition of ASX listed Recall Holdings
- NASDAQ listed Tetra Tech Inc. on its acquisition of Proteus EPCM Engineers
- Jabiru Metals on its takeover by Independence Group
- Advising on a 'top-hat' scheme of arrangement for the restructure of a private multinational corporate group, headquartered in Australia
- Edith Cowan University on its joint venture with Navitas Limited
- Ingenious Capital on its investment into the Merredin Solar Farm project
- Acting for various ASX listed companies and private companies with respect to employee incentive schemes